Masjid Al-Noor Overnight stay Guidelines

President
Dr. Asif Hussain

General Secretary
Adeel Aslam

ISCW is honored to welcome our guests to the Masjid Al-Noor of Marshfield. Only through the grace of Almighty Allah are we able to provide services for the Muslim community in and around Central Wisconsin. May Allah, through his infinite mercy, guide us all towards success in both the worlds and forgive us our transgressions and shortcomings. Ameen

Dear Guests,

Masjid is a house of Allah and everybody is welcome to use and stay here. Below are few guidelines for the guests staying overnight in Masjid:

1. Contact ISCW management by email: gs@iscw.us or phone #: 715-544-7744 at least 2-3 days (ideally 7-10 days) before arrival with tentative itinerary and plan. Please wait for approval before finalizing the plans.
2. Group leader is required to provide the Name, Address, Nationalities and Immigration status in United States of people staying in the masjid. (Overnight stay Form will be provided)
3. Each person in the group is required to submit a copy of photo ID staying in Masjid Al-Noor to the ISCW management on arrival.
4. If guests are planning to stay more than four days, inform ahead of time.
5. Due to limitation of accommodations in the masjid, please limit the number of people up-to six.
6. ISCW will NOT share any member's information including phone numbers without prior member permission. If guests are planning to visit member's home, it is advised to take prior permission with the member.
7. People living in the masjid are responsible for cleanliness of living quarters, kitchen, kitchen appliances and restrooms. Please remove and take with you all belongings including the food before leaving the masjid.
8. Please be respectful for the sisters and families visiting the masjid especially if they have to use the basement (that's where people will be staying).
9. During stay and before leaving make sure masjid is always locked and all unused lights are turned off.
10. Please refrain from political talks and speeches. Seek permission from ISCW management before delivering any message or speech or soliciting.
11. Please drive slowly in the neighborhood and be courteous to the people.

Please feel free to Contact ISCW Management, if you have any questions or concerns.
